Clara,

The following is my take on whether the Long Prairie Chamber of Commerce can apply for tax exempt status:

The short answer is, "yes" but as a 501.C6 organization and not as a 501C.3. The main difference between a 501.C6 and a 501C.3 is the deductibility of donations to the organizations on one's tax return. You can't deduct donations to a 501C.6 like you can to a 501C.3. However, 501C.6's can lobby and engage in political activity whereas 501C3's cannot.

Now, the Long Prairie Chamber could start a non-profit foundation which, if its mission was sufficiently limited, would or could qualify as a 501C.3.
